Thank you for considering sponsorship of the 2019 Northwest Law & Mental Health Conference. You can secure a conference sponsorship now at www.olmhc.org. Invoices & full receipts can be sent on request.

GOLD LEVEL SPONSORSHIP - $3000

Gold Level Sponsors receive social media sponsorship recognition, prominent signage during conference, exhibit table, group rate registrations, full page color ad in conference program, five full conference registrations.

SILVER LEVEL SPONSORSHIP - $2000

Silver Level Sponsors receive social media sponsorship recognition, signage during conference, exhibit table, group rate registrations, half page color ad in conference program, three full conference registrations.

BRONZE LEVEL SPONSORSHIP - $1000

Bronze Level Sponsors receive social media sponsorship recognition, signage during conference quarter page color ad in conference program, one full conference registration.

In 2018 sponsors and exhibitors made over 90 scholarships to the conference available for people with lived experience of mental illness or who were full time college or university students.

The annual Northwest Law & Mental Health Conference is designed for attorneys and law administrators, public and private clinicians, healthcare administrators, students of the law, social work, psychology and psychiatry, policy designers and elected officials, and companies and individuals involved with the care and welfare of people with mental illness.

I expect 400 people to attend the conference. Registrations, sponsorships and exhibit space sold out for this conference for the past three years. The full conference program will available on December 15. The conference will include nine sessions credentialed by NASW Oregon, the Oregon State Bar, and the Oregon State Department of Public Safety and Standards Training. A keynote talk will be given by Norman Ornstein of the American Enterprise Institute. The award-winning documentary film "That Way Madness Lies" will be screened with a director Q&A. The Oregon Advocacy Award will be presented.

Let me know if you have further questions.
